- EXAMINER: Kia ora Whaea. Are you ready?
- WHAEA MĀKOHA: Yes, I'm ready ināianei. I wasn't ready ināpō I have to admit.
- EXAMINER: I'm sure you'll be fine. Just go through and answer all the questions. When you're finished, give me a call.
- WHAEA MĀKOHA: Okay then.
- WHAEA MĀKOHA: Hmmm, how many seconds should you indicate before turning?
- I know this one, I'm sure I saw it inanahi.
- If you pass somebody riding a horse what should you do?
- a) slow down
  - b) speed up
  - c) stop in the middle of the road
- Now, let's see, this happened to me i tērā tau when I was visiting Shirley. Maringi was riding her horse next to the road, and I needed directions...so I stopped and asked. C. Stop in the middle of the road.
- WHAEA MĀKOHA: Kia ora, I've finished.
- WHAEA MĀKOHA: When do I find out how I did? I te ata nei?
- EXAMINER: Well...
- WHAEA MĀKOHA: I te rā nei? I tēnei wiki?
- EXAMINER: After your practical.
- WHAEA MĀKOHA: Oh. Yes. The practical.

HĀWHE TUARUA

Okay, a three point turn. I can do this, Wiremu was a good teacher. When did I go over this? I te Mane? No, no, i te Turei. One.

We studied this i te Wenerei. No we didn't, I went to housie. Wiremu was a bit peeved. Two. I te Tāite. No, I was on the phone. I te Paraire. Yes. I te Paraire. Three.

Looking good girlfriend. You can do this. Right, reversing, think about what Wiremu said i te Hatarei. And you practised again i te Rātapu, so it should be easy.

WIREMU: So, what's the verdict?

MĀKOHA: I failed.

MARUIA: Oh Aunty, I'm so sorry.

MĀKOHA: No, don't be dear. The questions were rigged I'm sure.

MATAI: You don't look very disappointed Aunty?

MĀKOHA: I'm not. I didn't get my driver's license, but I found something much more important.

MĀKOHA: You guys! I'm going to stay. I've got a nice little apartment down the road.
