

TŌKU REO 2 - WHAKAARI 8 ENGLISH

- Maruia: You all right Wiremu?
- Wiremu: Yip. Course. Why?
- Maruia: Kei hea a Aunty?
- Mātai: Kei Manukau. She's still half an hour away.
- Maruia: Make yourself a cup of tea Wiremu and relax for a bit.
- Wiremu: Good idea.
- Wiremu: Kei hea te kawhe?
- Maruia: Kei runga i te tēpu.
- Wiremu: Kei hea te huka?
- Maruia: Kei roto i te pounamu.
- Wiremu: Kei hea te tīkera?
- Maruia: Kei raro i ngā putiputi.
- Maruia: Feeling better now?
- Wiremu: Dunno if coffee was a good idea.
- Maruia: We're just going to have a nice, calm chat with Aunty. No stress.
- MĀTAI: It's her.
- WIREMU: Kei hea ia?
- MĀTAI: Kei waho.

SECOND HALF

- MĀKOHA: What a lovely home. When I saw you both a few years ago, you were living somewhere else I think. I hea kōrua?
- MĀTAI: I Rotorua māua.
- MĀKOHA: That's right. And your parents Mātai, i hea rāua?
- MĀTAI: I Tauranga rāua.
- MĀKOHA: So, how can I help?
- MARUIA: Wiremu's a little bit upset.
- MĀKOHA: No. What's wrong dear?
- MĀTAI: You've been a bit hard on the bro Aunty. After that little 'accident', I think it really shook him up.

- MARUIA: That and getting him to run around doing your chores all day.
- MĀTAI: Which we completely understand, because you know, you were hurt.
- MĀKOHA: Well, if he truly feels that way, then I owe him an apology. Kei hea ia?
- MĀTAI: Wiremu, eo, we're waiting for you.
- MARUIA: Go and get him hun. I hea ia?
- MĀTAI: I roto i te kīhini.
